Peeewe Sox make history with provincial gold win

The 2013 version of the Elk Point Peeewe Sox made history on Sunday, when they became Elk Point's first peeewe ball team to win a provincial championship, winning the Tier 5 Provincials final over the Fort McMurray Oil Giants. Another historic first for the Sox is that these are the 'boys and girl of summer,' with Taylor Pankiw a very valuable member of their lineup. The Sox are coached by Doug Bassett, with the assistance of Dennell Anderson, Darcy Pankiw and Dustin Berg. Congratulations to the Sox on a very successful season! ## Bears and Berries a big hit at the Forts

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

"If you go down in the woods today..."

A brave and excited group of youngsters, all clutching their favourite bears, dinosaurs, monkeys and other stuffed friends, converged on Fort George and Buckingham House on Saturday, eager to head off to the woods for the Provincial Historic Site's first-ever Teddy Bears' Picnic.

Numbers grew, with the crowd by now including a friendly dancing bear that is said to make her home at the Northern Lights Library System. Little artists got to work as commemorative t-shirts were coloured with special pastel crayons, which when ironed, would provide a permanent reminder of the children's visit to the event.

Then it was time for disguises, and the Forts' program director Ross Stromberg and assistant Sarjenka Kuryliw painted a long line of faces while Shirley Stromberg entertained with stories.

Families got in the act as well, teaming up with the children for the Bear Games, two of the three adaptations of the fur trade games enjoyed at the site's Riverland Challenge. Parents and children raced to fill buckets of water and hurry back to fill up larger pails in the "Wake the Bear" relay, then took turns tossing pie pans into containers, and finally, tossed "the berries" from stick to stick across ever-increasing distances in a game similar to ladder-ball.

Points earned by each of the teams were added up, and prizes awarded, with first place going to the Rockin' Rhymings and second to the Five Cents.

Everyone then crowded into the interpretive centre, where Shirley read "The Teddy Bears' Picnic" aloud before Ross, also in disguise, showed the youngsters the 'bear track' clues they would be looking for on their trip into the woods.

Then it was off to the woods, down the long, tree-lined trail to the original site of Fort George, and beyond, to a point where the bear track pointed the way off to the right. There, the children and families discovered Forts' interpreter Bailey Oster, with a well-filled picnic basket and a blanket spread on the ground, inside a clearing ringed with teepee frames.

Juice, oranges and snacks were enjoyed, before Bailey entertained the crowd with a few more stories, including Robert Munsch's 'Smelly Socks,' as everyone rested up for the walk back to the interpretive centre.

The Teddy Bears' Picnic was only one feature of Saturday's event, the Bears and Berries Festival,

Bears and Berries

a revised version of the Saskatoon Festival of other years. Saskatoon lovers were not forgotten in the changeover, with delicious slices of saskatoon pie piled with ice cream served up by Friends of the Forts Donna Chamberland and Loree Reynolds in the interpretive centre, and whole pies, jams, jellies and syrup as well as fresh berries at one of the tables in the craft sale outdoors. Handmade moccasins, bear-topped crocheted hats, books and other wares were also available at the sale, and Forts' volunteer Rob Holliday and his helpers, Paul Chamberland and Dennis Jasinsky, cooked up a steady stream of elk burgers for hungry visitors.

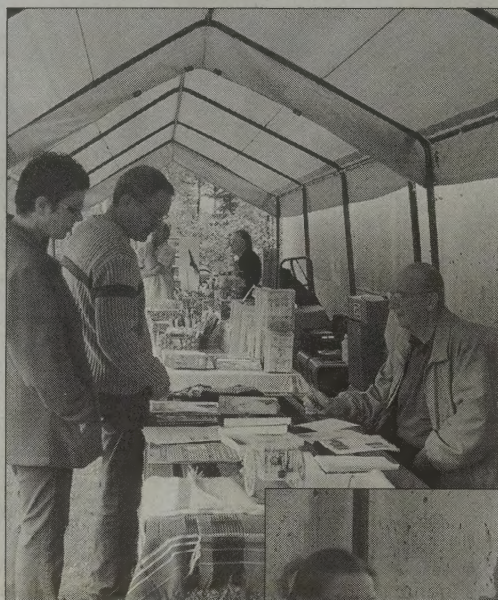

Another special feature of the day was horse-drawn carriage rides, and as usual, the Forts' interpretive staff also offered guided walking tours to the original fort sites.

The next special event at Fort George and Buckingham House is the Forts des Prairies Jamboree on Sunday, Aug. 25.

Crafts of many kinds

Author and historian Vern Wishart was at the Forts to introduce his second book, 'Kisiskaciwan (Saskatchewan): Tracing My Grandmother's Foot Steps'. Wishart wrote his first book, 'What Lies Behind the Picture?' after he discovered the secret his father had taken to the grave: his Native heritage. The new book is the story of his great-great grandmother, a woman named Saskatchewan, who married fur trader William Flett of the Hudson's Bay Company. Flett worked at this site and at Fort Edmonton and at Manchester House.

Below, crafters crochet and stitch moccasins and quilting as they increase their inventory while waiting for customers

HOCKEY TOURNAMENT AIDS A. G. ROSS ARENA - Member of Parliament Brian Storseth (right) visited Elk Point last week to present Elk Point Agricultural Society, represented by Doug Bassett, with $15,000 of the proceeds from Storseth's Extreme Hockey Night, an event that Dwayne Vogel, (left) who was part of the organizing committee, said was a "perfect fundraiser. We think we'll do it again." A number of organizations based in this end of Storseth's federal riding benefited from the event. The very welcome donation will help to facilitate several upgrades in the arena, including lowering the ceiling in the Horizon Room and adding more tables and chairs along the lobby windows where hockey fans can watch the games while enjoying a snack from the concession, he noted.

Quilts, sheep and art added to Horticulture and Craft Show lineup

VICKI BROOKER
Staff Writer

August 11 is going to be a very busy day at the A. G. Ross Arena, as other local interest groups join the Agricultural Society in presenting a show with a real 'country fair' atmosphere.

The 4-H Multi Club will hold their Achievement Day in conjunction with the Elk Point Agricultural Society's annual Horticultural and Craft Show on that day. They will have a tent and show ring set up in front of the arena and will show their lambs at 1:00 p.m., with the market lamb sale following at 3 p.m.

The Multi Club will also have Canine

Project agility demonstrations throughout the day, Poultry Project displays, and additional tables in the arena to show off their Craft Project displays as well.

The arena will house much more than the bench fair.

There will be a home-based trade show in the arena, which Deena Smith is coordinating. For more information, contact her at 780-614-5592.

Shirley Kinneberg is assembling an art show with other local artists and that also will be in the arena.

Capsule Comments

by Your Natural Choice Apple Drugs pharmacist, Seyi Oyebo

- It's usually women who worry that their biological clock is ticking when they desire to have a family. However, men should also be concerned about their own clock. The age of the new father can have an effect on the health of their children. It's important that if you are a new father-to-be, you be fit physically and mentally to give your children the best chance of a healthy life.
- Genetics and cancer are closely linked. U.S. scientists have discovered mutations in several genes that might be involved with esophageal cancer. The hope is that this knowledge will help develop treatments to prevent the disease from occurring. The cure for cancer could lie in our genes.
- At this time of year, our heels often become quite rough from going barefoot so often. Foot files are available to smooth the skin but have to be used with care. Pumice stones are much safer to use. Diabetics should be particularly cautious and pay close attention to their foot care.
- If you are stung by a bee, the stinger may still be in the skin. Take a credit card or a needle (not tweezers!) and scrape the stinger carefully off the skin. Pulling it out with tweezers might release more venom causing more swelling and pain.

Author entertains Summer Readers

VICKI BROOKER
Staff Writer

Children's author and storyteller Professor Klunk regaled a capacity crowd of Summer Reading Program participants with a series of his hilarious rhyming tales last Thursday afternoon at Elk Point Municipal Library.

The prolific author has nine books in print, six of which have been translated into rhyming French, and has nine more titles coming out soon. Writing these snort-and-snappy stories "takes about 20 minutes," he said, "and 20 more to type them with one finger, then up to two years to get the artwork done." A total of 13 illustrators work on his books, he added.

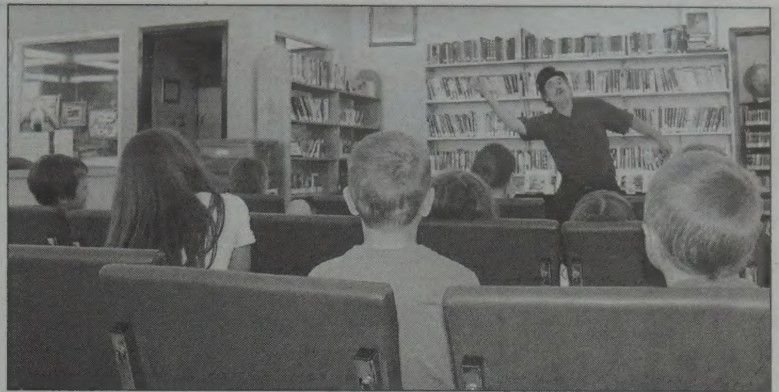

The Professor's topics run the gamut from animals to children's habits, to people and animals dealing with disabilities, and every one is high interest. They range from a tale about a flatulent skunk, who asked his friend, "Do you think it smells when I make a toot?" to a young man who thought his sister had taken his toy fire engine, and found it when he was hiding the dolls he had snatched in retribution, under his bed. There's a story about a boy born with one leg, whose father, a potter, had made him an artificial leg from clay, a leg that works just fine until he kicks a football and the leg goes flying right after it. Then there's the cat who loved food and ate anything that came his way, from fish on the beach to the budgies from their cage to some yummy mice, until he got stuck in his cat door, and switched extra snacks for exercise.

A horse with a glass eye and an oat allergy, a glue-eating boy who comes to a sticky realization of the error of his ways, and a brother and sister who don't know how to share are among his other topics, along with a most peculiar beef stew and a tree that wishes it were a rock.

Professor Klunk, who said he has been writing "since the last century - 1998," sells both regular-size and mini books on his website and at the many schools and libraries he visits. He also reads some of his books on YouTube, he said.

He also encouraged the children to write or tell their own stories, and to read as many books as they can. "Readers become writers," he noted.

Council enacts policy to ensure topsoil quality

RYAN MCCrackEN
Journal Staff

The County of St. Paul is taking steps to prevent the contamination of topsoil in the area by approving a policy at last week's monthly council meeting, July 16.

"The introduction of topsoil into the County of St. Paul originating from outside the County is prohibited to prevent the contamination of County topsoil with Clubroot or other noxious weeds or invasive plant species," reads the policy summary report.

Coun. Frank Sloan pointed out that while it has not been much of an issue in the past, council felt it was important to make a policy regarding topsoil contamination prevention.

"It's only logical that you shouldn't be hauling topsoil in, but we just didn't have that in writing," said Sloan.

Coun. Glen Ockerman agreed that the policy "is a very positive move and a good step to take."

CAO Sheila Kitz pointed out that if the county does "have problems going forward, we can move to a bylaw."

Unightly conditions
Council brought forward the prospect of an unightly conditions bylaw for the County of St. Paul, which was ultimately tabled for later discussion.

"This is a new bylaw that is being presented to council in discussion about unsightly property within the county," said Kitz.

Reeve Steve Upham pointed out that a main purpose of the bylaw is to ensure that unsightly conditions do not reduce the value of an adjacent property, however Coun. Cliff Martin shared his concern that many of the stipulations included in the bylaw will conflict with agricultural land.

"I think this should read that all agricultural land is exempt," said Martin. "This has to be a lot more defined, a lot of this stuff will not apply to agricultural land."

A motion to table the issue was passed.

Grant Requests

Council approved motions to provide grants to the St. Paul Seed Cleaning Plant and the Mann Lakes Golf Course, at $5,000 and $3,198.93, respectively.

The Seed Cleaning Plant has requested the grant from the county to assist in their property taxes. In 2012, total taxes for the Seed Cleaning Plant were $17,311.07, in 2013 the total taxes amounts to $17,943.93.

Upham noted that the plant installed a $320,000 colour sorter last year, which he says has been "providing an enhanced service" to the county.

"We gave them $5,000 last year, and I checked into it and this is approximately the amount that the taxes went up because of the colour sorter," said Sloan. "The colour sorter is an immediate benefit to the community."

Ockerman made a motion to provide a $5,000 grant to the Seed Cleaning Plant, which was carried.

COUNTY OF ST. PAUL No.19

HIGHLIGHTS

July 16, 2013
Council Meeting

Effective immediately the County office will remain closed from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m.

Water Lines – Tenders have been opened for the Ashmont Water Treatment Plant. The tenders were higher than expected. Administration has sent a letter to Alberta Transportation asking for the required increase in Water for Life funding in order to complete the Water Treatment Plant which will supply water to Ashmont and Lottie Lake – and in the future Mallaig. Council will consider awarding the project if we receive confirmation from Alberta Transportation that the project is eligible for additional future funding. The County will have to short term borrow for the project until the Province has the ability to provide for funding under this program.

Flooding in Southern Alberta – At the request of two oil companies, Council agreed to cancel the penalties on outstanding property taxes as they were unable to get into their office buildings to process their payments before the June 30th deadline, due to the flooding in Calgary. Also Council approved for a staff member to go to High River to provide assistance to the municipality as they deal with the flooding issues.

Strategic Plan – Administration provided a quarterly update on the Strategic Business Plan. The Strategic Plan can be viewed on the County website at www.county.stpaul.ab.ca.

Lagoon at Lac Sante – As per Goal 8 of the County's 2013 Strategic Plan, Council will be exploring a joint lagoon with the County of Two Hills for the Lac Sante Area. Administration will be applying for a Regional Collaboration Grant to do a feasibility study for the potential lagoon.

Policies and Bylaws – Council passed new policies and bylaws that residents can review on the County website www.county.stpaul.ab.ca. The policies are: Equipment Sanitation and Contamination Prevention, Pensionable Contribution for employees Exceeding Thirty-five Years of Service. The bylaws apply to the Airport Committee, Corridor Regulation and a Cemeteries Bylaw. Administration continues to work on the Off Highway Vehicles and the Unsightly Conditions Bylaws. Amendments to the St. Paul InterMunicipal Development Plan (IDP) and the County's Land Use Bylaw (LUB) were approved for rezoning of land just north of the Town of St. Paul. The rezoning is to allow for commercial development on this parcel of land. Council also gave first reading to bylaws that amend the St. Paul IDP and County LUB which contemplates the change from Agriculture to Country Residential (1) – public hearings for these bylaws will be held at the August Council Meeting.

Planning and Development – Building permits have increased by 28% and development permits have increased by 71% from June, 2012. There are currently 7 approved work camps in the County ranging from prefabricated semi-permanent buildings to more than 3 recreational vehicles on a site. There are two more applications for work camps that are pending approval.

Joint Election – County Council passed a resolution to enter into an agreement with St. Paul Education Regional Division No. 1 to hold a joint election in the fall of 2013 for the municipality and the school division.

Construction and Paving – Paving in subdivisions is now complete. County staff will be putting gravel in approaches where there is a large drop from the pavement onto private property. They have started working in Division 1 and will be working their way through the County to Division 6. County crews are also busy on road construction, oiling, and patching.

Ashmont and Mallaig Fire Halls – The frames for both buildings are up. The paneling and roof are done at Ashmont and they will be working on Mallaig this week. After the walls are up, we will be bringing in power so construction can begin on the interior of the buildings.

Highway 28 – Council made a motion to have Administration send a letter to the Counties and Towns along Highway 28 in order to have a coordinated effort to approach the Province to make upgrades to Highway 28.

Sox win GOLD!

By DOUG BASSETT
Review Sports

That's the way we do it baby!!!! Sox it to me baby, ahahah!!! I hear there's gold up in them there hills in Elk Point!!!

On Sunday at noon the Elk Point Peeewe Sox won their first provincial gold. The midget boys have won two gold medals in the past and three silver medals but this was the first gold medal for the Peeewe Sox.

The Sox have hosted many Midget provincials, in fact 10 times in Elk Point, but this was a whole new crew of kids and parents, including Elk Point Minor Ball president and Sox coach Dennell Anderson who on very short notice made many trips around town to pick up goodies for the kids' bags and organize t-shirts for everyone etc. etc.

The out-of-town teams started showing up with their holiday trailers on Thursday night during the Sox's final practice. Friday afternoon the Sox were scheduled to play their first game against the Drayton Valley Tigers, the Sox coaching staff sending Brayden "Magnet" Fairbairn to the mound. Not a great start for the Sox who had the home town jitters and made some fielding errors. Not helping was the rainy weather that was getting heavier as the game progressed. The Sox would be down by two runs in the bottom of the sixth inning when they started a really big rally to take the lead, Dustyn "Dust Pan" Pankiw coming in on relief in the top of the seventh to shut them down. The Sox winning this one, the final score 24 to 17. First base woman "Taylor Made" Pankiw was picked by the opposing coaches for the Heart and Hustle award.

Saturday morning at 9 a.m. against the Calgary Cubs it was another nail biter going to the bitter end, this time brother Cody "Baby Ruth" Fairbairn getting the pitching assignment. The Sox getting a nice seven-run cushion until the sixth inning when the wheels fell off the cart and the Cubs would answer with nine of their own and take a two run lead. Into the bottom of the seventh, with the bases juiced, Nick Tucker pounded a monster in-the-park home run shot to center field, the Sox with a walk-off win. This was the third homer of the game for Nicholas who also won the Heart and Hustle for this game.

Saturday night at 6 p.m. the game between the Sox and Fort McMurray Giants was really ugly and mostly because the game didn't mean anything, except a little pride, the Sox knowing already they would be in the gold medal game the next day, saving their aces and getting waxed by 10 runs in five innings. Kaiden "K rock" Evans Anderson on the hill was actually pitching great, throwing strikes but getting little support from his fielders, Corbin "Crusher" Ockerman coming in on relief getting the Heart and Hustle Award for his effort in this one. And there were some big hits in this one, just not enough defense. Back to back to back triples for Matthew "Big Red Machine" Nahirniak. Joe "Jose" Laurie and Dustyn "Dust Pan" Pankiw.

The stage was set. The Sox coaching staff saved their secret weapon for Sunday's Gold Medal Final at noon. Nick "KKK" Tucker, their strike out king (82 strike outs on the year) became the tournament MVP. The Fort McMurray Oil Giants had never faced Nicholas before in the three previous meetings. Seven K's in the final game. But this game wasn't as easy as it sounds by any means, the Sox had to work very hard for every run they earned and it was a complete team effort at the plate and on the field from every player on the team. That's the great thing about baseball, it is a team sport, but at times during the weekend every individual player had his or her moment to shine, and came up with a big play or a big timely hit to make their parents and grand parents proud.

The game was tied seven-all after five complete innings, the drama building. Nicholas was maxed out in the fifth inning. Dustyn "Dust Pan" Pankiw coming in on relief, the Sox bats picking up three runs in the top of the sixth and then four more in the top of the seventh, "Dust Pan" allowing only one run in the sixth. Bottom of the seventh, the drama building more and more with the home town crowd cheering louder and louder, the Giants getting the first batter on base, he steals second, the tension is building, then... one batter strikes out, next batter strikes out and the final batter... he goes down swinging too...Dustyn Pankiw giving all three batters a chair. The Sox Win the Big One!!!!!!

The big show was in its final stages on Friday morning when the team heard the news that one of their players wouldn't be playing. "CCW" Christian Can Wheel Castle Wasson was admitted into the hospital for tests and wouldn't be in the line up. The good news: he's out and will be playing ball again next season. That left the team with only nine players, but this only made the team more determined than ever to win a gold medal for their buddy "CCW".

Heinsburg to host third annual Trail Day

VICKI BROOKER
Staff Writer

With two years of success behind them, the community of Heinsburg is getting set to host their Third Annual Trail Day on Saturday, Aug. 10.

The event is a fundraiser for the Haying in to 30s Cancer Support Society, but no fees are charged, and all donations go directly to Haying in the 30s.

"Everyone is welcome to join in – wagons, horse-back riders, bicycles, quads, hikers and folks who want to ride along on a wagon," says Marjorie Scott, one of the organizers. She invites everyone to "Bring along your voices and your musical instruments for an outdoor jamboree following the barbecue supper at the gazebo."

Coffee and registration will take place at the camp kitchen, beginning at 9:30 a.m., with the ride from Heinsburg to Middle Creek and back on the Iron Horse Trail beginning at 11 a.m. Lunch will be supplied at Middle Creek.

Overnight camping is available at Heinsburg's Water Tower campsite, where horses are welcome and hitching rails are supplied.

For more information call 780-943-3148 or contact wagonsho@telus.net

Way back when...

County of St. Paul Reeve Ray Danyluk commended a delegation of trail users for putting aside their differences as they came together to ask for assistance with signage, maintenance and gravel removal in developing the former rail line from Elk Point to Heinsburg into a recreational park. Whitney Lake stamped in brilliant sunshine, with a Saturday night jamboree in Heinsburg that kept the dance floor full right up to the home waltz as one of the highlights of the rodeo weekend.

2003

There was joy in Mudville, known on drier occasions as Bassett Field, as the Elk Point White Sox edged out Standard 13-12 to win the Provincial Midget A Baseball Provincials, with Sox pitcher "Marksman" Mark Letestu named MVP in the championship final. Town council approved a revised mutual aid fire protection agreement with the County of St. Paul, and also approved a revised joint use fire protection agreement to be administered by a committee made up of two representatives from each jurisdiction and the administration of both.

The first-ever saskatoon bake-off proved a big hit at Fort George and Buckingham House as the historic site hosted its annual Saskatoon Festival, complete with a craft sale and a sculpture demonstration. Signage and street repairs were on town council's summer agenda, with three "Elk Point – the Right Place to Be" signs approved along with repairs and relaying of cold mix on the industrial area roads.

GOLD! County council

Putting on a provincial tournament at short notice wouldn't have been possible without all the help we had, including the efforts of my good buddy, Marshall "Little Beaver" Myshaniuk and all his ground keeping crew. He's always been there at every provincial before and during, ready and willing to lend a hand and he never receives the recognition he deserves.

Laverne Wilson is another unsung hero who comes to every tournament and pitches in as our chairperson, and brings along his sidekick Parrish Tung, our tournament director.

A lot of credit goes to bench coach Dennell Anderson and base coaches Darcy Pankiw and Dustin Berg for their hard work all year at practice preparing the boys (and girl).

And we can't forget all the parents who helped score keep, pitch count and work the concession to make this a successful tournament.

And finally to the boys and (girl) of summer for giving me another medal to hang on the wall and making me as proud as I possible could be of you guys!!!!!!

Mann Lakes Golf Course Owner Ron McDonald filed a request for an operating grant of $3,198.93 to assist in the cost of property taxes. "Since 2009 council has approved a grant to offset property tax," said Kitz. "His request is for the whole of the taxes."

Sloan said he feels the private golf course provides a valuable service to the community.

"We're lucky because a private individual is providing recreation for the community," said Sloan. "It's a small amount of money to put towards it."

Joint Election with School Division

The County of St. Paul and St. Paul Education Regional Division #1 will be holding a joint election this fall. Polling stations will feature ballots for both the county and school board elections.

Streetlight in Lafond

Homeowners in Lafond have requested the installation of a streetlight on the northwest corner of their property. The homeowners submitted the request with the written consent of the adjacent landowners.

Council approved a motion to install the streetlight at a cost of approximately $2,000 plus the cost of the monthly power fees.

Intern

Council approved a motion to send intern Kyle Attanasio to the Institute of Public Administration of Canada's annual conference in Montreal, Que. from August 18 to 21, and to the Alberta Recreation and Parks Association conference in Lake Louise from Oct 24 to 26.

The IPAC conference "will explore why, in what areas, and in what ways governments must reinvent themselves, and will identify the conditions necessary for such reinvention," according to the summary report.

"I am confident that he has researched the various conferences out there for local government and agree that this conference will provide him greater insight to the administration of local government - and the relationships between local, provincial, and federal governments," Kitz said in the agenda.

The total cost of sending Attanasio to both conferences will be $11,600, of which Kitz said the majority will be funded through the Municipal Affairs Municipal Intern Grant.
